Dedication: Sister Conrada

Sister Conrada Schneider has been one of Regina's most devoted teachers since 1929. In teaching Math, English, and German, Sister has demonstrated her thorough and interesting skill in instruction.

Sister was born in Ottoholfen, Germany and came to America in 1907. She taught grades one through six for twelve years, and was the first principal at SS. Peter and Paul School before joining the faculty of Regina.

Retired now, Sister Conrada enjoys spending much of her time caring for flowers. Her former students lovingly recall her classes and her famous fudge which she makes at Christmas time.

The class of '70, one of the last classes to benefit by your tremendous teaching, dedicates this ANCILE to you, Sister Conrada. Thank you.

FTA AND NURSES TEAS

The Future Teachers of America helped establish good teacher-student relations through a tea held in honor of the faculty. Serious ideas as well as friendly chatter were exchanged over refreshments and entertainment.

The Future Nurses Club also sponsored a tea. Guests were Regina graduates who either were practicing nurses or were studying nursing. The purpose of the tea was to better inform students about nursing school and the outside work involved in nursing.

"The Harvest Arts Festival," November 25, was produced by the Glee Club with the aid of the Art Classes and the Speech Class. Paper mache figures were on display and the Speech Class gave a modern reading.

Purcell High School's Glee Club joined with Regina in the performances of Gian-Carlo Manotti's opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors." The production was held December 12 with Lisa Winkler, sophomore, as the Mother, and December 14, with junior Jan Jelks in the Mother's role. The Kings were portrayed by Terry Loftus, Tom Sylvester, and Bill Geiger, all members of Purcell's chorus. Doug Rolson from St. Peter and Paul was cast in the role of Amahl.

SENIORS

I journeyed back in time last night,
Past crumbling ancient rituals with their words of days long gone,
Over the barriers of fallen creeds covered with mosses,
Around the stony forbidding answers of a cold theology.
A small group of us searched our way through twenty centuries of history:
And we were there!
Christ was there as our brother and God as our loving Father.
Our tiny chapel with its unadorned walls must have looked Like some secret places where the early Christians met

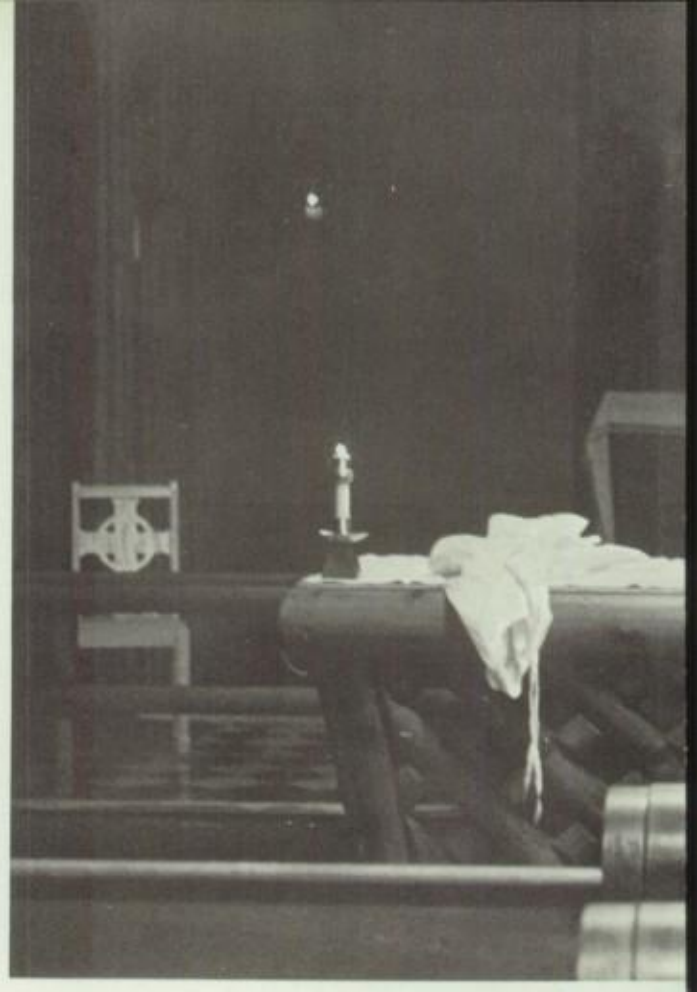
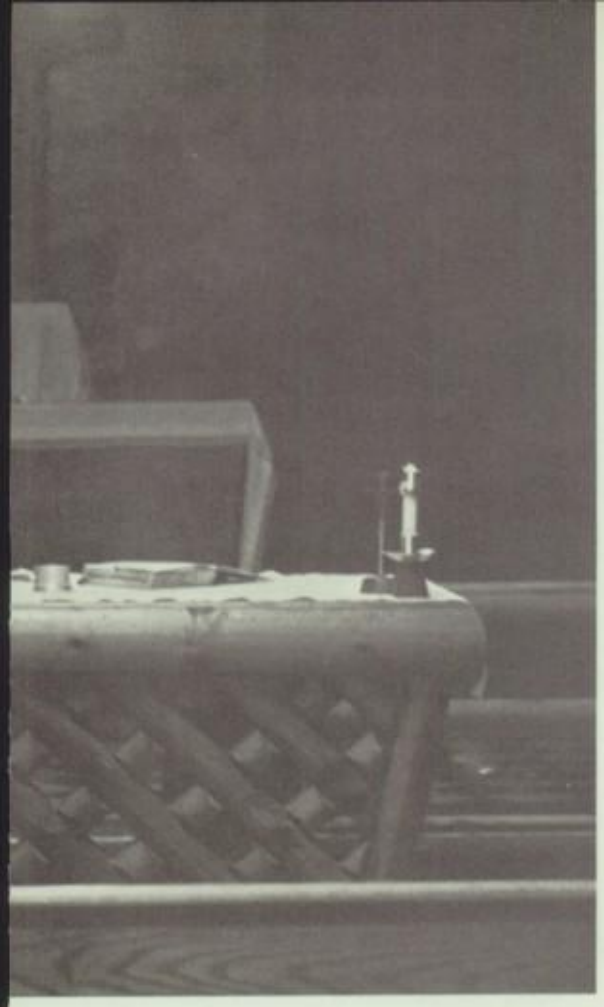
The hymns we sang came not from books but from words written on our hearts.
The scriptures we read were poems and letters about people now.
Our ritual was spontaneously created as we were led of God's Spirit.
Our prayers were not tired cliches
Repeated many times until
Like a rusty knife they have no edge to cut into our souls.
Our prayers were made of words that burned like fire.



Retreat



Speaking of real people
real lives
real needs
We talked things over with God.
Things like the inhumanity of war,
the stupidity of bigotry and selfishness,
the mysteries of love and marriage in a loveless world,
our own selfishness when we leave these problems for others to solve.

A handclasp and a kiss of peace were given,
And we knew how the early church had feared no foe when cradled in such earnest ties of love.

A blessing leaped from lips to hearts,
"May the peace of Christ be with you . . . and you . . . and you . . . and you!"
Our hearts warmed within us and I saw upon those youthful faces
The face of God himself.

Mr. Gene Grant

Retreat . . . a going away . . . a coming out . . . Marydale and "The Barn" . . . Fathers Mack, Holtz and Bishop. Feelings of seriousness, laughter, joy and togetherness. Desirable penance service . . . emotional Mass . . . tears. I got to know you . . . You got to know me . . . both got to know ourselves.

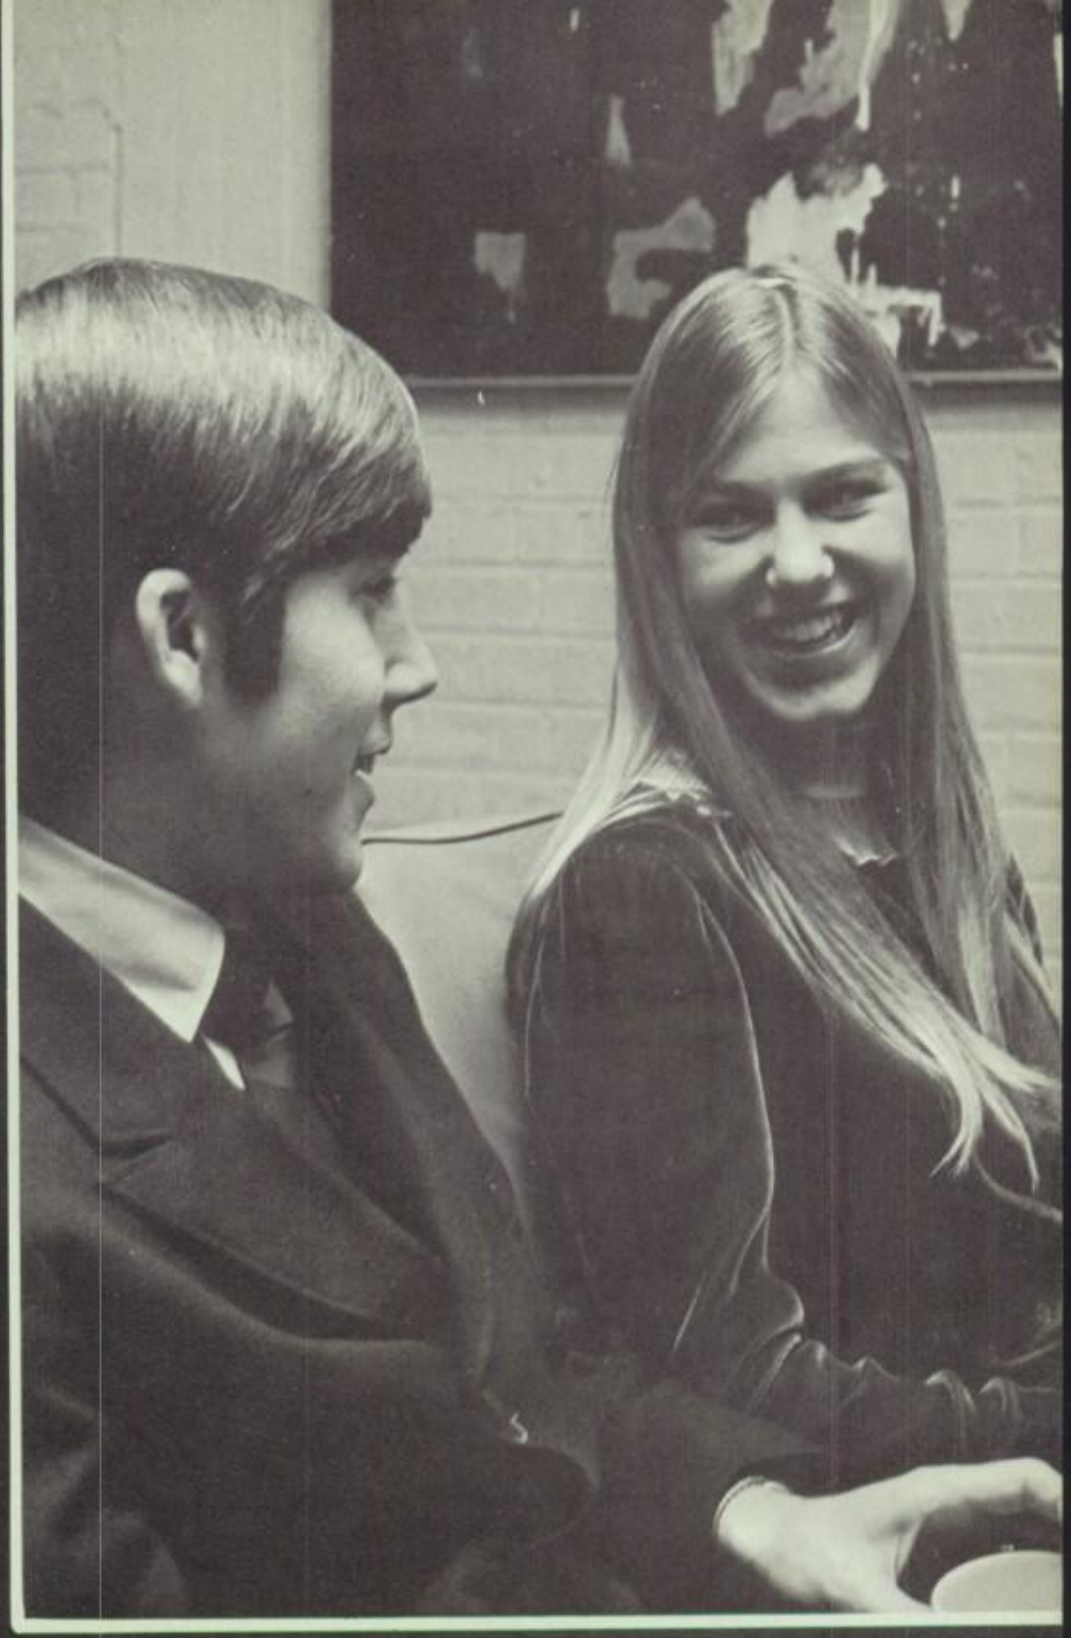
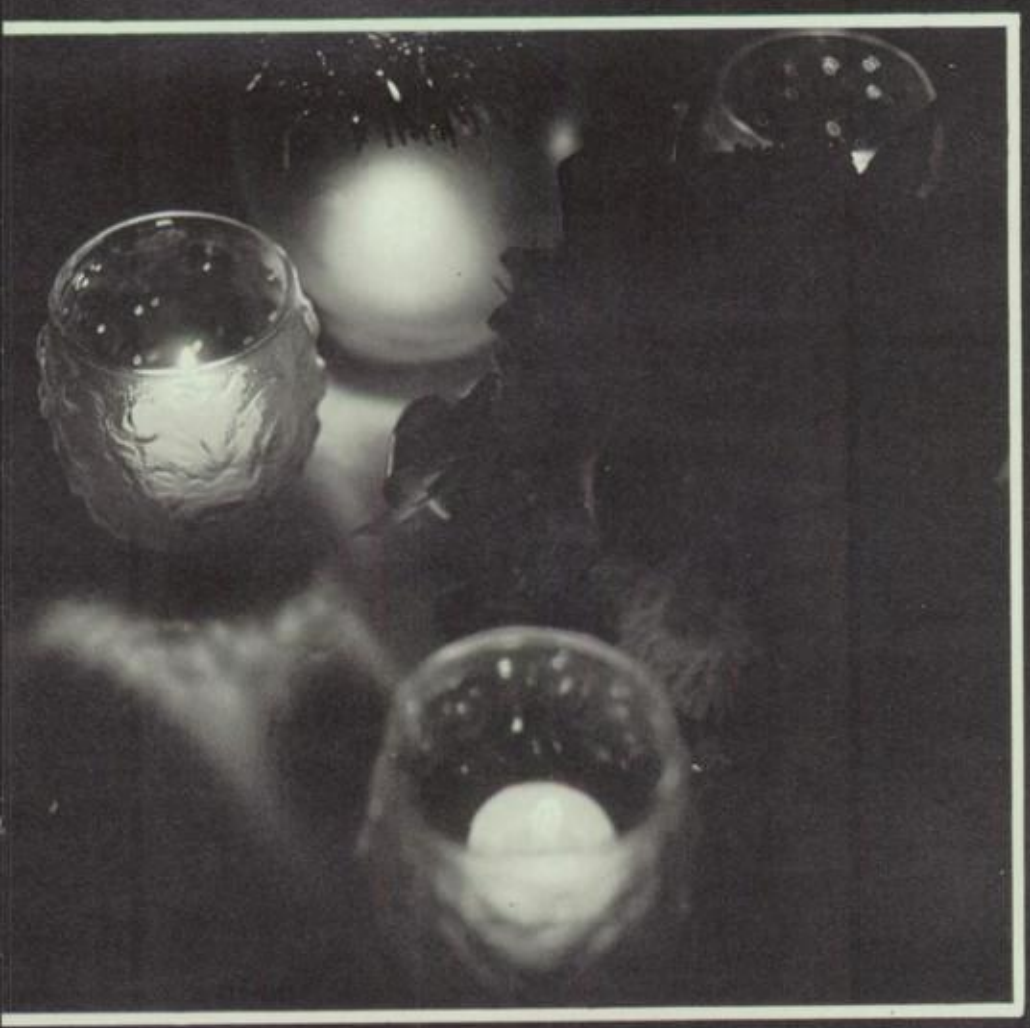
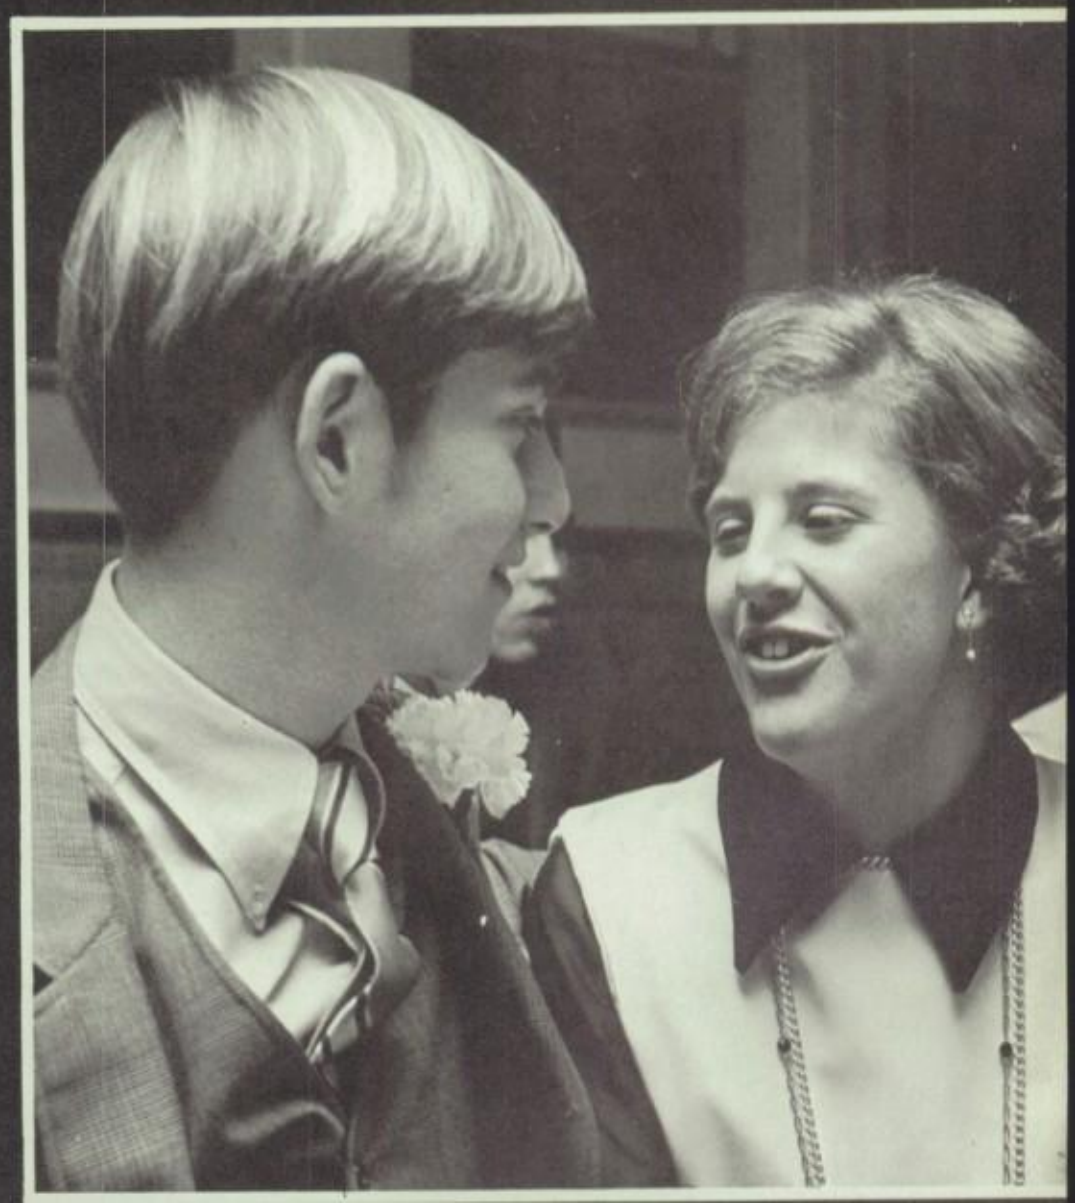
SENIOR CLOSED DANCE







A Land of the Midnight Sun . . . of golden lamps . . . happy words . . . their last dance at Regina . . . thoughts of the past . . . dreams of the future . . . togetherness. Let the sun shine in.

70's First Graduate

On Monday, December 22, 1969, Regina High School was notified of the death of one of its senior students, Sue Haberthier. The following is an excerpt from Father Thomas Maher's homily at Sue's Funeral Mass:

Susan A. Haberthier

Christmas is a time for joyful get-togethers with loved ones — and we experienced a painful separation from a dear friend, and a wonderful classmate.

Christmas is a celebration of the birth of Christ — and we suffered the death of a Christian.

Christmas celebrates the beginning of a tremendous life of love on the part of God for Man — we witnessed the conclusion, and the fulfillment of a beautiful life of love for God and us on the part of Sue.

Christmas was yesterday and Easter will be tomorrow. Sue did not look back. She looked forward. Her senior year was to be the fulfillment of three underclass years of promise and anticipation. She looked forward to a reunion with her boyfriend, home from the army for the holidays. She looked forward to the prom, if he could be with her. And surely, she looked forward to graduation.

And now strangely, unexpectedly, Sue has graduated — not so much from Regina as through Regina High School — through her teachers, through her friends and most of all, surely, through her wonderful family. Through us all she has graduated to a new and greater life.

Our feelings of intense pain are underlaid with an intense faith. We feel the pain of separation, but we believe in Sue's union with the Christ of Christmas and Easter.

We feel the sadness of death, but we believe in a life, not ended, but changed, a graduation to a new life — an everlasting one.

We feel a love in our lives extinguished, but we believe that the love Sue gave us in this life lives on in us. It is now our responsibility to keep it alive, and to that extent Sue will always be with us.

Christmas is a time for giving of gifts. O Lord, we give back to you a gift you have given us for these 17 years. And for the gift of that time with her we thank you, Lord.

Sue's senior classmates solemnly attend a Mass offered for her.

CAPRICORN

If you were born under Capricorn, you uphold the Establishment but fancy yourself to be a swinger. You are basically very independent, but dull at times. A Taurus or a Virgo would make the best companion for you.

As a Capricorn, once in love you become anchored and harmonize with your lover. When your love passes, you experience every degree of loneliness. Your life changes, offering a new lover; and you demonstrate your genius in love by completely forgetting yesterday's romance.

AQUARIUS

Born as an Aquarius, you are inclined to be very philosophical. In relation to others, you prefer to live and let live. Your worst trait appears to be your ability to connive. Those under Gemini and Libra offer the best compatibility for you.

Where love is concerned, there can always be room for change. An Aquarius falls in love quickly and easily, without thoughts of yesterday. In love and marriage, your first demand is friendship.

PISCES

Born under the sign of Pisces, you are a very compassionate person, though at times, you are super-sensitive. Actively, you are drawn to dancing; yet you are often preoccupied with daydreams. Your close friends should be of Cancer and Scorpio.

Love comes easily to you; you are loved before you love. Aware of your ability to attract people, you lure them into love by your mysterious glory. Handle a marriage or love situation with care.

ARIES

Born under Aries, you are gifted with a strong personality. With this tremendous advantage, you prove to be a born leader and empire-builder. Your main fault seems to be that you are domineering. Look to persons under Leo and Sagittarius for companions.

The stars reveal that you do not wait for love; you fall in love quickly and inform the person with the same speed. Love builds your ego and makes you a better person, but beware of becoming overly confident.

TAURUS

The stars show that those born under the sign of Taurus are extravagantly sensual and especially attracted to luxuries. Though at best you are brilliant, so also you can be very temperamental. A Virgo and Capricorn would be your best bets for friendships.

You instinctively fall in love; life without it loses meaning, so you can fall in love again and again. The experience you gain by being hurt once will save you any pain in a second love affair.

GEMINI

Geminis are known as quick change artists and nimble leaders. Your best trait is your versatility. Your worst trait is your inconsistency. You are most compatible with Libras and Aquarians.

You have a great ability to communicate with your lovers, but hesitate out of fear to fall in love twice. Brothers and sisters can lead you towards the right person; but, generally, your choice is not one whom your friends would have selected for you.

CANCER

Mary Rose Losh

Cancers are of two varieties. You are either flat-chested or full-breasted, laughing lunatics. Ambition is your best trait, procrastination your worst. Compatibility exists best between you and a Scorpio or a Pisces.

You plunge into love, for without it you can be miserably sad. You show kindness and sympathy toward your intended lover. Although insecure, you let the world know you are ready for love. You worry tremendously and often seek a commitment which no one can offer you.

LEO

Leo, you are quite the romantic one as you love outward displays of romance. You have a magnetic personality, but sometimes you are too boastful. You are not particularly compatible with any sign.

By nature, you are passionate, loving, and rather demonstrative. The need to love and be loved is always aroused in you. You can fall in love again quickly and usually to someone who reminds others of your first love.

VIRGO

Being a Virgo, you are known to be gentle and tender with warm twinkling eyes. You usually are practical, but also, at times, uncooperative. Consider those under Capricorn and Taurus for good friends.

You sensibly search for love, knowing it cannot be denied and can be given to more than one partner. If you single out a lover, you like to feel that person has chosen you.

LIBRA

A Libra is known as a leader who strives to maintain peace at any price. You are a lover of beauty, but often unreasonable. Your compatibility lies with Gemini and Aquarius.

You feel that a new love subtracts nothing from an earlier love. You become happy by making others safe, comfortable, and happy. Therefore, many different people fall in love with you easily. Love in your life becomes natural through marriage. You desire the true legal and spiritual relationship.

SCORPIO

Born under the sign of Scorpio, the stars look on you as a very shrewd person, demonstrating your worst trait in occasionally being inconsiderate.

The stars say you cannot function as an individual. You have deep longings and are amazingly alert to the opposite sex. No matter how hurt you may have been once, you still always fall in love again. Love must carry a strong degree of mutual response and true unity for you.

SAGITTARIUS

Generally, Sagittarians are described as optimistic, honest people shooting their arrows into the heart of things. Your best asset is your warm-heartedness, but you sometimes become self-indulgent. A Leo or Aries would make a true companion for you.

You have loved and you want love to be different and unusual from time to time. You know about love although you hesitate to experience it. You find yourself taking your time and let love experiment with itself.
